Global Spine Journal, the official journal for AOSpine International, is an international peer-reviewed journal that includes scientific articles as well as original research, reviews, commentaries, editorials, and technical reports in all spine fields. The journal aims to promote communications among spine surgeons, orthopedic surgeons, and neurosurgeons by providing an integrated and balanced view of the clinical and basic science studies of spinal disorders.

Global Spine Journal is incorporating Evidence-Based Spine-Care (EBSJ) as a special section featured in the GSJ issues. This special section features the unique EBSJ content such as systematic reviews, Science-in-Spine and Original Research w/ methodological reviews.
