

Online Learning

The AANS provides over 250 presentations each year from the AANS Annual Scientific Meeting as on-demand presentations online. Catch sessions missed due to schedule conflicts or revisit favorite presentations. Keep up to date on advances in neurosurgery, access stellar research to check a reference and learn more about what your peers are doing to effectively management practices and deal with reimbursement issues.

Enjoy 24/7, on-demand access plus: -All presentations are available for download in MP4 formats. - MP3 audio files can be downloaded as a free additional feature. -Content is archived for two years online; a CD option also is available for purchase. -Search options for subjects, titles, presenters and more. If you attended that year's meeting, you will see the full compilation in your classroom as a free benefit of meeting registration. These presentations are also available for purchase, either as a full compilation or in subspecialty tracks.
