

The Ohio State University Wexner Medical Center

The Ohio State University Wexner Medical Center (Columbus). The Comprehensive Spine Center at the Ohio State University Wexner Medical Center, which is considered to be a high-performing neurosurgery hospital and the best within the Columbus, Ohio, region, treats spinal conditions spanning from the cervical to lumbar spine, and needs ranging from pain management to spinal surgery and rehabilitation. OSU Wexner's Cranial Base center excels in minimally invasive endoscopic-endonasal approach procedures.
